PLANETARY DANCE

With Jamie McHugh

A Benefit for 350.org & Waves Studio

The Planetary Dance is a dance with purpose: to make peace between people and the planet. Created by dance visionary Anna Halprin, the Planetary Dance is a moving mandala formed by people running or walking in a series of concentric circles, or standing in the four directions. People of all ages and abilities around the world have joined together in this universal form over the past 30 years.
